Experience Passport to the World at the Kansas City Renaissance Festival

BONNER SPRINGS, Kansas (Sept. 1, 2017) – Grab the family and prepare to experience the magic at the Kansas City Renaissance Festival! From dancing gypsies and a colossal mystical dragon, to unique art and fantastical masks, join us this Labor Day weekend, September 2nd, 3rd & 4th.

Take a ride on the Wizard's Flight School Zip Line to explore the realm from a different perspective.

Enjoy a beverage at the all new Throne of Swords tavern and test your wits at the all new escape rooms by Clue Pursuit.

Shimmy on over to the Washer Well Stage during the Belly Dance Contest to see some amazing dancers and compete for prizes! Starting at 12:45 p.m., at the Washer Well Stage, participants will have the opportunity to show the audience their best moves! There will be both Adult and Junior competitions. Winners will take home prizes from Heart of America Belly Dance.

Patrons are encouraged to show their creative side with the Fantasy Mask Competition! Any materials are acceptable for use as long as it is handmade. Paint, beads, feathers, and more can be used to craft a mysterious mask! Everyone who enters this contest will receive two tickets to enter the Festival. This contest is held daily at 3:00 p.m. The winning masks will be chosen by popular vote!

Other daily contests include a Hula Hoop Contest, Costume Contest, a Jumbo Polish Sausage Eating Competition, and Villager Bingo! Visit www.krenfest.com for a complete contest schedule.

In partnership with Harvesters Food Drive, bring five cans of non-perishable food items and receive a Buy One, Get One Free admission on a regular priced Adult ticket.
